People are a priority at BCCI: 2011 Best Places to Work List

San Francisco (April 22, 2011) — BCCI Construction Company has been named to the Bay Area’s “Best Places to Work” list by the San Francisco Business Times and Silicon Valley/San Jose Business Journal.

BCCI has been recognized six consecutive years on the prestigious Best Places to Work list, which honors companies with positive work environments and best employment practices. Winning companies are selected on the results of a confidential employee survey.

“This year was exceptionally satisfying to be recognized as one of the Bay Area’s Best Places to Work,” said BCCI President and CEO Michael Scribner, “because during this past recession, our staff pulled together to support one another’s personal growth, and continue the commitment to quality for our clients. In my mind the key differentiator at BCCI is our people. We have a talented, self-motivated group who do an amazing job.”

Recipients of Best Places to Work awards were honored at a ceremony April 21 at the Hilton San Francisco. Winning companies will also be recognized in a special “Best Places to Work” publication insert in the April 28 editions of the Silicon Valley/San Jose Business Journal and the San Francisco Business Times.
